Our Founder

Late Sri Raja Bankatlal Gopikishan Badruka
(1905-1966)

Sri Raja Bankatlal Badruka was a great philanthropist, who donated liberally to several charitable causes.

His dearly cherished ideal of propagating value-based education impelled him to set up the Seth Ghasiram Gopikishan Badruka Educational and Charitable Fund in 1950, in memory of his grandfather Seth Ghasiram Badruka and father Seth Gopikishan Badruka.

In 1966, the Fund was registered as Seth Ghasiram Gopikishan Badruka Educational Society.

The Society commenced its glorious journey of imparting quality education with the setting up of Badruka College of Commerce in August 1950. In these 71 years, the Society has grown from strength to strength and today has Five premier educational institutions in its fold, as well as a students' hostel.

- Badruka College of Commerce and Arts
- Badruka College Post Graduate Center
- Bankatlal Badruka College for Information Technology
- Badruka Junior College for Girls
- Bansilal Badruka School of Music & Dance
