Badruka Educational Society

In the year 1950, a proposal for establishing a Commerce college in Hindi medium was mooted by Raja Bankatlal Badruka and Shri Pannalal Pittie. Nawab Ali Yawar Jung Bahadurji, the then Vice-Chancellor of Osmania University appreciated the initiative and suggested that a college be started in English or Urdu medium with an endowment fund of Rs. 2.5 Lakhs. Raja Bankatlalji, true to his character, spontaneously donated the amount and obtained the approval to start a college with Intermediate Section in English medium.

The first exclusive institution for students of commerce came into existence on 2nd August 1950 and was inaugurated by the renowned celebrity Shri MK Vellodi, ICS, the then Chancellor of Osmania University.

OUR VISION

Providing holistic commerce education to foster entrepreneurship and positively impact business outcomes

OUR MISSION

- Pursuing new age curriculum through value added courses.
- Engaging our alumni and corporates support to enhance the learning process through internship and corporate exposure.
- Developing entrepreneurship culture and competence through strategic tie-up with organisations like T-Hub, CoWE, OUTBI.
- Promoting critical thinking, leadership, collaboration and global awareness and transform our students into enlightened, upright and socially committed citizens.

OUR FOUNDER
Raja Bankatlal Badruka
(1905-66)

Sri Hariprasad G Badruka was a man with commitment, a great visionary and an able administrator. He took over the responsibility of SGGES in the year 1966 and served as Secretary & Correspondent for five decades (1966-2015). He was the managing trustee for Goshala Sri Venkateshwara Gorakshini Trust in Dabilpur, Medchal for seven decades.

Simplicity, commitment, hard work, faith in God, confidence in self, punctuality and discipline defined Sri Hariprasad G Badruka. Under his leadership the strength of the students increased in various disciplines.

CHAIRMAN EMERITUS Sri Hariprasad G Badruka (1928-2020)

Badruka College of Commerce and Arts (BCCA)

Badruka College of Commerce and Arts (BCCA) made its humble beginning in Darul Shifa (in the Old City) comprising of three permanent staff, with a two-year intermediate course in 1950. Later the institution was upgraded to a degree college in 1952 and shifted its campus to the famous 'Gadwal Palace' in Nampally. The college is now located in the heart of Hyderabad at Kachiguda, which has rightly earned the sobriquet 'The City of Pearls'. Hyderabad has been a leading hub of the Indian IT industry. BCCA is well connected by train and bus route to all corners of the city.

Today BCCA has become a byword for academic and extra-curricular achievements. It has long been recognized as a premier institution of higher learning. As a centre for academic excellence and achievement, it has emerged as one of the finest institutions for Commerce, while offering a BBA program. BCCA has not only kept pace with the changing world, but also has been the pioneering spirit behind many innovations in the field of education.

The institution strives to imbibe the teaching and learning process with a unique blend of intellectual vigour, aesthetic and ethical engagement. At BCCA, the belief is in a holistic vision that never discounts the past, but at the same time embraces the future with unwavering confidence in the ability to shape it and harness its potentialities.

The College is committed to nurture and create individuals who are equipped to be world citizens. They recognize challenges as opportunities. BCCA students are empowered with professional competence and ability to assume positions of leadership with care and shatter inhibitory glass ceilings. The emphasis is on liberating, and not domesticating pedagogy.

An enlightened and supportive Governing Board (both past and present) with members drawn from fields of industry, law, academic, bureaucracy and politics has been inspiring and steering the college in its long journey to fulfil the vision of its founder. The journey well begun has infinite potentialities to evolve further, setting up newer standards of excellence.
